

Blue Lime Labs is a Danish capital pre-seed investor and business accelerator scouting for progressive B2B ideas to invest and co-develop globally.

We partner with founders, designers, engineers and other talented and ambitious people worldwide to build awesome companies from scratch.

Pulsetip, Raceoptimizer and Harba are startups of international scope we built within the first year of our activity, and we are planning to expand rapidly during the upcoming years.

By joining Blue Lime Labs team you will never be bored with the same tedious tasks, as there is always an opportunity to rotate between projects and innovate on them.
